

Comparative Philology Graduate Class
Michaelmas Term 1991

A. Morpurgo Davies and J.H.W. Penney

The Reconstruction of Indo-European Morphology: Ablaut and Nominal Inflection

All meetings will take place on Tuesday at 2.15 p.m. in the New Council Room, Somerville College (next to the lodge) starting in second week.

Tuesday 22 October (second week)

Prof. Davies: Morphological Reconstruction in the Early Nineteenth Century: Inflection, Ablaut and Language Classification.

Tuesday 29 October (third week)

Prof. Davies: Late Nineteenth Century and Early Twentieth Century: Ablaut, Accent and Root Theory

Tuesday 5 November (fourth week)

Dr Penney: Ablaut and the Noun

Tuesday 12 November (fifth week)

Dr Penney: The Classification of Noun Inflection

Tuesday 19 November (sixth week)

Dr Langslow: Patterns of Noun Inflection in Anatolian

Tuesday 26 November (seventh week)

Dr MacRobert: Balto-Slavic Evidence for Nominal Accent Patterns

Tuesday 3 December (eighth week)

Dr Tucker: Caland's Systems

Please notice that the class starts in second week; philological lunches will start in first week and as usual will be in the Vaughan S.C.R., Somerville from 1 to 2 p.m. on Tuesday.