

Comparative Philology Graduate Class
Hilary Term 1997

LARYNGEALS AND INDO-EUROPEAN: a very tentative pre-programme

Tuesday, 2.15 - 4 in the Centre for Linguistics and Philology, Walton Street
Starting in Second Week (28 January 1997)

Second Week: Tuesday 28 January

Daniel Baum,

History and Prehistory of the Laryngeal Theory

Third Week: Time to be arranged - Probably Monday 3 February at 5 p.m.

Don Ringe (University of Pennsylvania)

Laryngeals and Tocharian

Fourth Week: Tuesday, 11 February

Anna Morpurgo Davies and Philomena.

What does Anatolian really contribute to laryngeal theory ?

Fifth Week: Tuesday, 18 February

David Langslow and John Penney

Do Laryngeals solve all problems of vocalism? The case of Italic

Sixth Week: Tuesday, 25 February

TBA: X and Y

Why do we need more than one laryngeal ?

Seventh Week: Tuesday, 4 March

TBA

Phonetics, Phonology and Typology: does the laryngeal theory make sense ?

Eighth Week: Tuesday, 11 March

All participants (short papers)

Things which we do with laryngeals